

2.0 DEFINITIONS

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, certain words and phrases when used in this booklet shall be defined as shown below. For additional definitions, see the latest edition of the National Electrical Code.

AMPACITY

Current carrying capacity expressed in amperes.

APPROVED

Indicates approval by Allegheny Power.

COMMISSION

The state regulatory agency having jurisdiction.

COMPANY

"Allegheny Power" and the areas it serves in Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

CUSTOMER

Any present or prospective user of the Company's services or his representative.

FURNISHED AND INSTALLED BY THE COMPANY

Either the Company or an authorized agent acting on its behalf shall provide labor and material at the expense of the Company for the items so specified.

FURNISHED BY COMPANY, INSTALLED BY CUSTOMER

Materials so specified shall be provided by the Company at no expense to the Customer and be installed at the Customer's expense.

NEC

National Electrical Code, NFPA 70.

SERVICE DROP

The overhead wires through which service is supplied between the Company's distribution facilities and the point of their connection to the Customer's service facilities located at the Customer's building or other support.

SERVICE LATERAL

The underground wires through which service is supplied between the Company's distribution facilities and the first point of their connection to the Customer's service facilities located at the building or other support.

SERVICE ENTRANCE

All components between the service point of the overhead service drop or underground service lateral and the Customer's main disconnecting means with the exception of the Company's metering equipment.

SERVICE ENTRANCE CONDUCTORS

The wires between the point of termination of the overhead service drop or underground service lateral and the Customer's main disconnecting device.

SERVICE POINT

Point of connection between the facilities of the Company and the Customer's wiring.

TARIFF

The schedules of rates or charges of the Company and its associated Rules and Regulations as filed with the regulatory agency having jurisdiction over its operations.

TEMPORARY SERVICE

Service supplied for construction purposes or of limited duration and delivered to a single point through one meter.

WORK REQUEST NUMBER

A unique number assigned by the Company for the purpose of designing, tracking, constructing and billing a project.